FOREWORD

The present has fast become the past and this our year has ended. We have met its joys, hopes and challenges with varied personal feelings. Each day has brought its new experiences, its own individual times. When this year is added to those which preceded and those which will succeed, the true realization of our year will come.

Miss McCaslin

All men need guidance and inspiration. They need the light of understanding and the staff of security to help them traverse even the smoothest path that spirals toward their goal. In deepest appreciation for her encouragement and aid, and for the propelling stimulus of her warm praise in many student undertakings, the National staff of 1951 dedicates this book to Miss Nellie McCaslin.

Senior Class Officers

Senior Class

With open minds and eager hearts we have met our life at National. Sharing experiences with each other we realized true friendships and gained in understanding of ourselves. As student teachers we formed our varied conceptions of our work. The proof of our labors is in the years ahead. Eagerly we look to the next stage of life, for which this first was planned.

Introduction to Classes

Whether we were freshmen, sophomores or juniors this year, we were an active part of our school. Under the leadership of officers each class planned activities and discussed school problems. With each monthly meeting the feelings of class spirit and pride in group accomplishment developed.

CLASSES

Junior Class Officers

Junior Class

This year has brought more of life to us. As we work to make knowledge ours, new experiences broaden our understanding. We began this year with a party to acquaint new and former students. At the Bazaar we sold chubby little N.C.E. piggy banks. With Christmas on the way a Holiday Tea was held. In March a glamorous style show was the outcome of many plans. The seniors were honored at the traditional Junior-Senior Brunch. May came and with it the joys and labors of the Spring Festival. The year was brought to a glorious close with the Prom at the Michigan Shores Club.

Sophomore Class

Life here is important to us, not only because we are learning how to be teachers of little children, but also because we are living our chosen way of life.

We have felt the frightening thrill of a first day of student teaching. We have worked together on our projects, which included compiling the Student Directory, selling stationery and bookcovers, and saluting the seniors with the daisy chain. We played together in sports and at parties.

It is with a sense of pride that we realize our feelings of oneness with each other and with our school. Our spirit is high as we look to the future.

Freshman Class

We freshmen are proud of ourselves. We have worked hard. Our sale of National sweat shirts proved profitable; our volley ball team even beat the faculty; and our mixer in February was a great success. We have ended our first year at college with a feeling of satisfaction and inspiration as we recognize the challenges which lie before us.

Introduction to Faculty

For the guidance and counsel that will lead us to richer lives we turn to our faculty. Realizing their achievements and abilities we learned from them many of the strong principles on which we will build our future lives. As teachers of tomorrow we salute our teachers of today.

Sports

Sports are an important part of our life at National. We welcome the exciting change of pace in life that they bring. When we really play a game we live within the game. Thoughts of all else are thrust aside and we are living the game. Forgotten are worries, problems and duties; we are alive only to the vital present in the game. We learn the lessons of sportsmanship and feel the spirit of teamwork.

SPORTS

We felt the greatness of teamwork so important in volley ball. Both agility and a joy in the play grew with each game. As freshmen we are proud to have won the honors in volley ball for this year. A game with Mundelein added to our enjoyment of the sport.

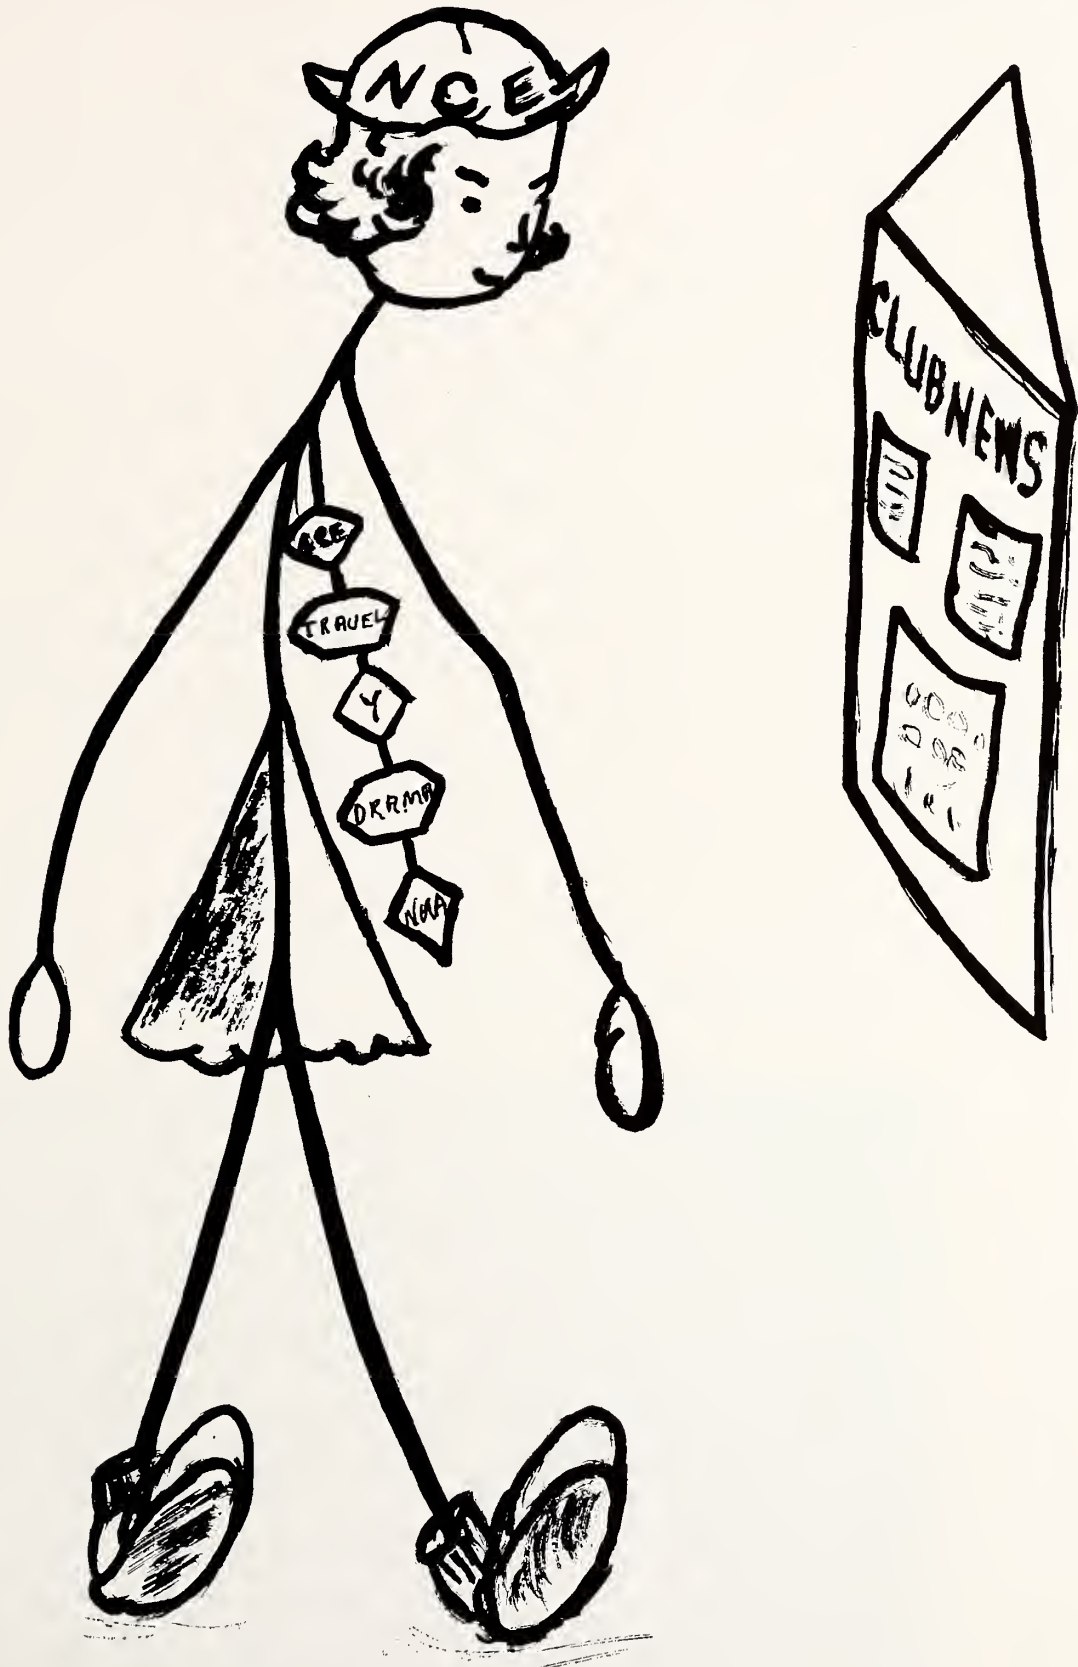

Skill and high spirit are essential for the game of hockey. We felt this spirit in our games and we worked together to perfect our skills. For the second year we, the class of '51 have come out on top in the hockey tournament.

Activities

Our own particular interests were satisfied by participation in club activities. Each Thursday we attended a club meeting that was of special interest to us. We helped others or we enjoyed ourselves; we gave vent to our creative urgings or we worked for our school. Expression of our individual feelings or accomplishment in a field of our own ability was possible in an organization.

ACTIVITIES

College Council

College Council works for us all. Students and teachers who represent the student body and the faculty come together in monthly meetings to discuss and work out problems that affect the entire school. Our officers, who are elected in the previous spring, are installed with impressive ceremony in an early fall assembly. This year College Council sponsored a Crusade for Freedom drive, a book exchange, and a project to send books to Europe. The members assist annually at two teas: one for the prospective students, the other for the mid-year graduates. The girls and the faculty work together to make our school life a successful and profitable experience.

Second Row: P. Melanson, M. Cantrick, J. Bowen, J. Steiger, J. Stott, F. Drayson, J. Maynard.

We as residents of the dormitory are joined together as a unit in the Dormitory Association. Our leaders are chosen by us as our representatives in a system of self-government. They also guide the many social functions which include hall parties, dances and open house teas. Life here is a valuable experience to each member who plays her part in contributing to the happy home-like life.

TGA OFFICERS

With the guidance of the officers, TGA held meetings and planned special events. It was by working together on such things as the barn dance, Christmas party, Dads' dinner, and Mothers' luncheon that we grew together into closer friendship. We met each other in our unofficial headquarters, Student Center. Over cokes and cards or through friendly discussion of current affairs we gained understanding of ourselves and our friends. We were happy having fun, and working together constructively.

National Staff

Left to Right: D. Butcher, I. Stokes, C. Mount, J. Van Allen, N. Barnes, M. Michel.

Top Row: D. Masten, R. Sivertson, C. Giroux, C. Mount, A. Carter, J. Van Allen, D. Jasper, J. Steiger, C. Stone.

Second Row: G. Klitzing, B. Filloon, I. Stokes, P. Melanson, D. Butcher, B. Merrill, M. Kenely.

A yearbook can be only a vague image of a year; the true picture for you is in your memory. We, the staff of the yearbook, have tried to make a book that will provoke in your mind a true picture of this year.

Chaff

Top Row: I. Stokes, R. Stephan, M. Walsh, E. Rye, M. Cantrick, J. Smith, H. Paulsrud, P. Juday, M. McDougle, C. Bucknum.

Second Row: P. Nelson, A. Carter, D. Butcher

Writing for Chaff is the privilege of selected and interested students. At monthly supper meetings we plan and discuss the paper, which appears the third Tuesday of each month. To have an informed student body is the goal of the Chaff staff.

Athletic Association

ATHLETIC CLUB REPRESENTATIVES

Left to Right: A. Hawkins, M. Walsh, Chairman, Mr. Hardy, sponsor, M. Reynolds, D. Lutter, F. Hirsch.

With the crack of a hockey stick on a hard white ball we opened another season of sports at National. Games of volley ball, badminton, basketball and baseball followed in quick succession. To complete the program there were a successful swimming party and some student-faculty games.

Front Row: H. Ellenberger, P. Nelson, A. Blair, president, T. Ladd, R. Coats.

Second Row: B. Carlson, C. Taylor, E. Hamlish, C. Bucknum, F. Atschuler, P. Stunkard, R. Culver, M. Michel, M. Gustafson, J. Emberg, B. Goodrich, P. Price, E. Seels, P. Thursby.

Third Row: E. Rye, H. Neemann, J. Port, J. Steiger, F. Farlinger, M. Bautzmann, J. Covington, M. Gillen, J. Manthey, J. Reitsch, D. Bonnema.

We, as "Y" members, look back on a year of fun and many worthy activities. The Cook County Hospital received Christmas cards which we made. Two delegates from National were sent to the Geneva District "Y" Conference held at the University of Illinois. Our organization sponsored a Home Education Series, and was also responsible for the Easter assembly.

A. C. E.

Front Row: M. Schwartz, J. Reitsch, E. Hamlish, M. Bautzmann, P. Yager, J. Lahey, J. Shappi, J. Clemmens, F. Attschuler.

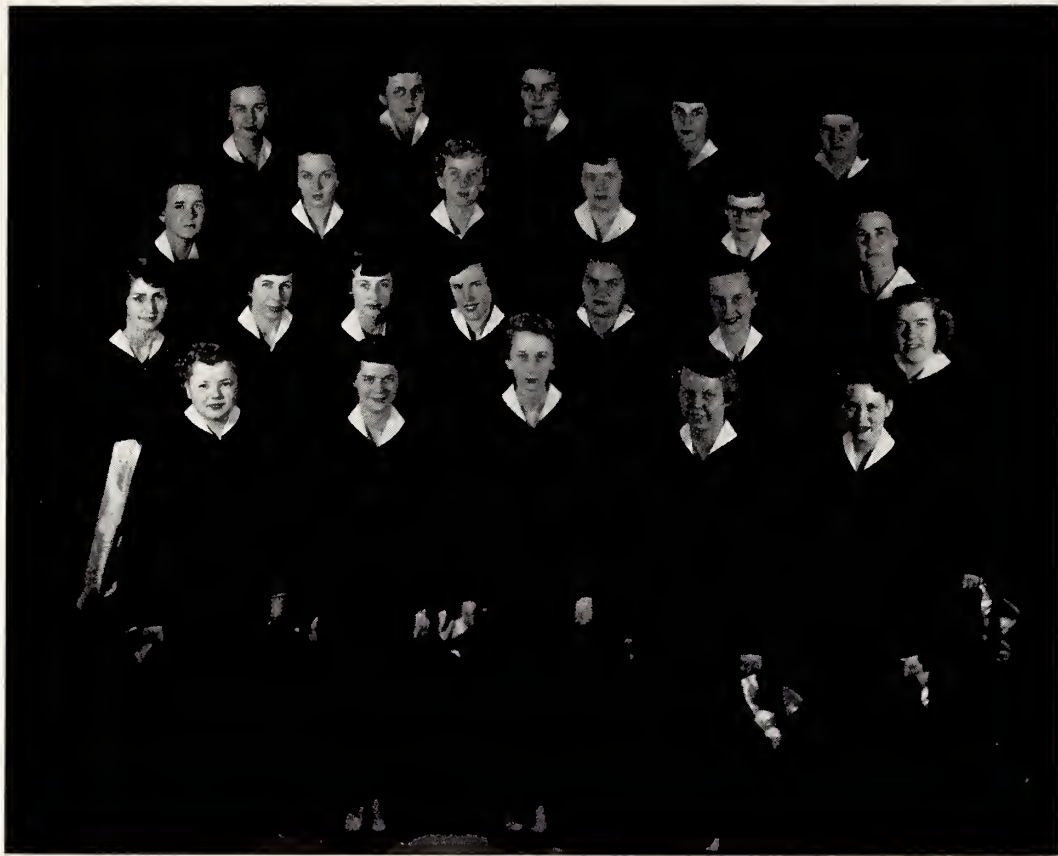

Second Row: J. Steiger, E. Rye, W. Larsen, C. Bucknum, M. Schmidgall, F. Risler, B. Tappert, R. Stephan, D. Jasper, S. McLain, M. Michel.

Third Row: P. Adelberg, D. Lutter, M. Myers, M. Friend, B. Moehl, J. Port, P. Pierner, R. Coats, P. Price, B. Goodrich, J. Sweger, M. Sliker.

Fourth Row: C. Brown, J. Covington, N. Apel, I. Bitant, B. Butterworth, C. Levinson, H. Eilenberger, F. Sigborn.

As future teachers we look to ACE for guidance. Through lectures, movies and discussions we gain knowledge of new developments in the teaching profession. By taking part in our varied club activities which include attending ACE conventions and working at Christmas for settlement houses we gain new experiences which prove of value to ourselves and others.

Choir

Top Row: M. Cantrick, A. Cristy, M. Walsh, A. Ribstein, J. Sanderson.
Second Row: N. Apel, D. Butcher, G. Hackl, P. Adelberg, P. Juday, B. Moats.
Third Row: A. Powers, D. Cadwallader, M. Jones, J. Port, A. Hansen, P. Stunkard.
Bottom Row: M. Sears, F. Drew, T. Ladd, F. Risler, P. Harlan.

With a schedule that included singing for the Governing Board, the Spring Festival, a TV appearance, week-end tours and many other special programs throughout the year, Choir took many hours of diligent practice. Yet, the rewards come when we know we have done well and when we make music really live in the one brief moment of a song.

Drama Club

Front Row: P. Law, treasurer, B. Eggleston, president, F. Autschuler, vice-president, B. Bonnema, treasurer.

Second Row: A. Kasmir, D. Masten, W. Larsen, J. Reitsch, S. McLain, D. Jasper, D. Lutter, M. Gillen, J. Maynard, M. Michel, P. Burns, E. Seels, N. Barnes.

Third Row: D. Weens, M. Schmidgall, B. Tappert, F. Risler, R. Stephan, M. Myers, M. Bautzmann, B. Moehl, C. Braun, J. Clemmens, J. Manthey, P. Pierner.

We know the fun, the excitement and the creative expression that comes in the theater. By attending performances of the legitimate stage we gain in our appreciation and enjoyment of this art. Two performances have tested our abilities. Early in the year "Peter Peter" filled us with fun and magic. The group of realistic one act plays given in the spring made us feel a closer union with life and the play.

Dance Group

Top Row: J. Smith, D. Siegel, H. Neemann, L. Reichling, J. Steiger, P. Rauth.

Second Row: N. Apel, R. Beal, F. Sigborn, president, J. Draznin, P. Juday.

Bottom Row: F. Atschuler, C. Bucknum, D. Keinigsberg, B. Butterworth.

In Dance Group we derive pleasure from interpreting music and words with body movement. At our Wednesday night sessions we practice graceful turns and leaps, and work to feel a oneness with rhythm. The music of "Show Boat" and "Manhattan Tower" was expressively performed in our February recital.

Orchestra

Left to Right: J. Lahey, J. Sweger, C. Wood, L. Reichling, P. Pierner.

We enjoy the feelings of teamwork and creativity that come when one plays in an orchestra. Our newly organized group had its first public appearance in January, when we provided the music at a tea for prospective students.

International Club

Front Row: B. Butterworth, B. Moats, Y. Nakamura, A. Oka, A. Fujita, D. Rhodes.

Second Row: H. Maier, G. Kusatsu, M. Weiberg, Mrs. Boybjerg, M. Eifert, M. Sliker, J. Teranishi, P. Moy.

Within International Club we share our interests and knowledge of other countries. Our field trips to Hull House, Chinatown and the University of Chicago satisfied some of our desires to know about others and their ways, and enriched our appreciation of these people.

Sheil Club

Front Row: F. Hirsh, M. Reynolds, P. Burns, J. Lahey, F. Sigborn, M. Walsh.

Second Row: P. Melanson, J. Melgard, M. Myers, A. Mantell, R. Stephan, L. Grogan, F. Drew, D. Lutter, A. Kasmir, M. Gardner, M. Underine.

The Sheil Club, our Catholic organization, provides activities of religious and secular significance. At monthly informal meetings we discussed religious questions and current problems. It was fun attending N.U.'s weekly activities and socials, sponsoring the all school movie, "You Can Change the World," and preparing for our spring social.

Introduction to Student Teaching

We learn to be teachers by actual teaching. Already we have experienced a part of the fun, the happiness, the work of teaching. Each day we met situations that stimulated us to become more alive to our work. Particular methods and principles of education have been put into action before our eyes. Slowly we have come to realize concepts of our profession.

STUDENT TEACHING

Third Row: A. Oka, C. Levinson, B. Merrill, N. Shane, C. Bucknum.

Introduction to Activities

In addition to our clubs and organizations we have special activities. Although these activities are re-created annually, each year there is a certain variety that gives a freshness and excitement to each performance. Underclassmen look forward to the day when they may experience the fun and the teamwork of being in one of these productions. It was with pride and a spirit of thanks that we entered into these activities.
